In April 2013 the Inauguration of the Memorial to the Friends Ambulance Unit took place at the National Memorial Arboretum in Staffordshire, see http://www.guardian.co.uk/society/2013/apr/16/rare-memorial-inspires-quakers-work and http://www.qsmt.org.uk/
The Friends’ Peace Testimony and Conscientious Objection (English)

The Award speech for the 1947 award of the Nobel Prize for Peace to the relief organisations Friends Service Council (London) and the American Friends Service Committee (Philadelphia) and history of FSC:
and

Rhyfel Byd 1914-1918 a’r profiad Cymreig / Welsh experience of World War One 1914-1918
(in English)

Pacifism (in English)
http://www.llgc.org.uk/ymgyrchu/Heddwch/Heddychiaeth/index-e.htm

WW1 and Wales recruitment (in English)
http://www.llgc.org.uk/ymgyrchu/Heddwch/Recruitment-WW1/index-e.htm

BBC 1 All Our Lives, ‘Welsh Conscientious Objectors’ http://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/p00gm0c7

Waldo Williams’ statement as a conscientious objector, to the Carmarthen tribunal, 12\textsuperscript{th} February 1942 (in English), pp. 254-5 in Euros Bowen Waldo a Chrynwriaeth Y Traethodydd - Cyf. CXXVI (538-540) 1971 pp. 247ff, 254-5

Beyond the Friends Ambulance Unit ... in two World Wars – see A. Tegla Davies, author of The Friends Ambulance Unit: the story of the FAU in the second world war 1939-1946

A Tegla Davies, work in China:

Relief work with displaced persons, Christmas 1946: Christmas lecture by Dr Fiona Reid, University of South Wales http://profile.glam.ac.uk/christmas-lectures/2010/fiona-reid/

The Second World War and Waldo Williams’ poem the Peacemakers (in translation)
http://www.llgc.org.uk/ymgyrchu/Heddwch/WW2/index-e.htm

Article by David Cleaver, Conscientious objection in the Swansea area

http://www.theyworkforyou.com/debates/?id=1940-07-04a.983.1 (on WWII)
Other resources

'Wales for Peace' is a Wales-wide project part-funded by the Heritage Lottery Fund and coordinated by the Welsh Centre for International Affairs. The aim of the project is to involve young people and community groups across Wales in discovering and sharing Wales' peace heritage. This may include looking at how your community was affected by war, or sharing information about the work of individuals or groups in your community who have worked for peace. Educational materials will be available, and there will be opportunities for your school / community to get involved in researching and sharing the ‘hidden histories’ of peacemakers in your area. Like to be involved? For further information contact: walesforpeace@wcia.org.uk

Looking for records of conscientious objectors - The National Archives http://www.nationalarchives.gov.uk/records/looking-for-person/conscientiousobjectors.htm

(From the website above): Parry Jones grew up in Wales, becoming a conscientious objector in WW2. He joined the Friends Ambulance Unit working in London during the Blitz, then in China for 4 years, and finally India for 2 years before coming to America. He was accepted at Swarthmore College, married, and started a family, afterwards working in Pakistan in the mid-1950's before starting a career in teaching that lasted for 20 years. This book is his life story as told to his sons during 3 years of interviews, with countless revisions, and 2 years of editing.

Lily Tobias, Eunice Fleet (Honno's Welsh Women's Classics 1933, republished 1994), the second novel by Jewish internationalist Lily Tobias. It drew on her WW1 experiences aiding conscientious objectors in the Swansea and Cardiff areas (her brothers had been COs). The novel embraces the themes of hostility to pacifism, socialism, COs’ experiences and family relations.
Theses online

http://digitalcommons.mcmaster.ca/cgi/viewcontent.cgi?article=8120&context=opendissertations

Peace matters today

Calon (the newsletter for Friends in Wales), January 2012

http://www.peacetaxseven.com/CDDay.html (Cardiff)

The White Book of Carmarthen, from The Friend

The Quaker Tapestry, peace panel: the panel on Milford Haven, includes quote from Waldo Williams in Welsh http://www.kendal-and-sedbergh-quakers.org.uk/page26a.html

Texts not online

Towards the Source Published by Meeting of Friends in Wales, 2014